Trinity Sunday

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith. —Excerpted from The Church's Year of Grace, Pius Parsch

St. Francis News and Notes...

- ◆ Thanks to everyone who participated in our Family Dinner. Special thanks to our Parish Community Life ministry for organizing and to those folks who helped clean up!
- ◆ Our confessional is being revamped and under construction. Expectations of final completion will be one week. Saturday, June 11, Fr. will hear reconciliations in his office.

We apologize for any inconvenience and if you have any questions please contact Karen in the office.
